A photograph of an open refrigerator with its interior light on. The shelves are filled with numerous clear plastic containers of various sizes, each containing pre-packaged food items like salads, fruits, and vegetables. Each container has a white label with text in Thai. A person's hand is visible on the right side, reaching towards one of the containers. The overall scene suggests a well-stocked, convenient food storage system.

A close-up, shallow depth-of-field photograph of a desk. In the foreground, a black smartphone lies on an open, blank notebook. To the left of the phone is a white cup of coffee on a matching saucer. In the background, a stack of several books is visible, and a desk lamp with a warm, orange glow is positioned above them. The overall atmosphere is quiet and focused.
